

IN THE NEWS | MEDIA

 constitutionalrightscentre.ca/police-action-against-ontario-government

April 29, 2021

Published : APR 29 , 2021 | Vol. I Issue: 18

Police take Court Action against Ontario Government over COVID Measures Enforcement Duties

PUBLISHED: APRIL 29, 2021 | by the Constitutional Rights Centre

– PRESS RELEASE –

Ten (10) active, and five (5) retired, Police officers have launched an Application in Ontario Superior Court, to seek clarification, and challenge, the Province's Covid-measures, and their enforcement, as breaching and violating their Police Oath which Oath includes upholding the Constitution.

Their Notice of Application can be viewed on the Constitutional Rights Centre website at: constitutionalrightscentre.ca

Some of the Applicants will hold a brief press conference, along with their legal counsel, on: Thursday, April 29th at 4:30 p.m. EST

You can join in at: www.wholeheartedmedia.ca

Any questions may be directed to legal counsel at: Rocco Galati

Rocco Galati Law Firm Professional Corporation

Tel: (416) 530-9864

Email: rocco@idirect.com

Thank you for your continued and kind support of the CRC

- PRESS RELEASE -

Thursday, April 29th at 4:30 p.m. EST

Police take Court Action
Against Ontario Government
Covid Measures
Enforcement Duties

POLICE LINE DO NOT CROSS

Rocco Galati, BA, LLB, LLM, Executive Director

A promotional banner for the Constitutional Rights Centre of Canada (CRC CDC). The background is a dark, high-contrast image of a large, classical-style building at night. On the left, there is a small inset image of a person in a hooded garment holding a white cone, with the text "CRC CDC" below it. On the right, there is a QR code next to a smartphone icon, and below that, icons for Twitter, YouTube, and LBRY. At the bottom, the text "CONSTITUTIONALRIGHTSCENTRE.CA" is displayed in a spaced-out, white, sans-serif font.

